

“Knowledge is the key to your success and personal satisfaction.”

To enjoy life, every person needs to obtain satisfaction from the work they perform and to earn enough money to provide a good standard of living for themselves and their family.

Your ability to achieve success and personal satisfaction is directly related to continuing your education and improving your job skills.

When our editors decided to publish The Lane Report's NEXT magazine, our mission was to encourage Kentucky's high school students to achieve their best.

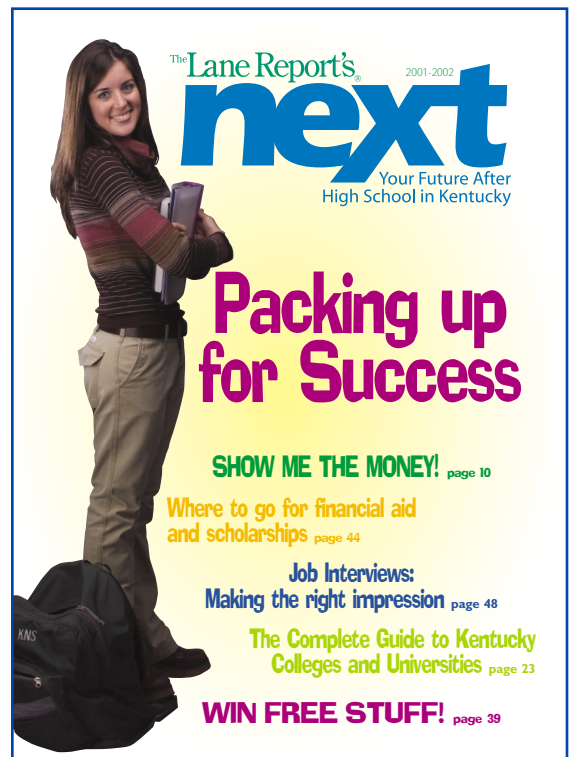

In this issue, you can obtain a broad range of information on state universities, independent colleges and universities, community and technical colleges, trade schools, and military training in the armed forces.

The important decisions you make today on continuing your education will have a powerful impact on your future.

Education pays,
