

Forget the old saying "you can't judge a book by its cover." When it comes to job interviews, first impressions count. Putting a little extra effort may well result in a big pay-off!

Notice the smile? So will employers!

This simple, more polished hairstyle is much more appropriate for an interview.

Conservative is the way to go when it comes to the tie. Leave the funky ones for another time.

Classic lines always work. Stay away from anything too frou-frou or trendy.

Tucked-in shirt – a must!

A dark skirt or dress is ideal. Just make sure you don't go too short on the skirt.

A short encounter with the iron makes all the difference in those khakis.

Coordinated belt/shoes looks best.

Flesh-tone hose are the right choice. Off-black or taupe would work too – just leave the fishnet for another time!
