

University of Kentucky starting cornerback Antoine Huffman excels at much more than football. In 2004, he was named to the American Football Coaches Association's National Good Works Team for his dedication to community service.

A cornerback who knows the importance of giving back.

Each year he makes countless visits to area hospitals and schools, all while volunteering with the Boys and Girls Club, and the Hope Center, to name a few.

He recently graduated Cum Laude with a 3.46 GPA. Add to that his outstanding leadership qualities and it's no wonder why Lexington is a better place because of Antoine.
